Local Contributions: Mobile Meals takes center stage!

Not only has this been an extraordinary year for our Rotary club, it has been a year of foundation-building for the future. The Queen of Hearts – over $150 in the pot, Ed White deprived Her Majesty of His Majesty's company. Close, Ed, but not the big enchilada! The queen will be on vacation until Monday, July 9.

A reminder to call Nathalie Wood 882-1442 if you will, or will not be attending Charter Night and the Thirtieth Anniversary of the Rotary Club of Furnitureland. Nathalie has renegotiated the price of the meal to a more favorable price point. The committee has worked hard on this anniversary event. The menu looks exquisite (Sliced Beef Tenderloin and Lobster Tail, etc.) Don't miss this one.

Gary Simon reports that he is recovering gloriously and will be home in a few days. Doctors operated on Gary recently to patch a hole between the upper chambers of his heart. He had been experiencing fatigue and dizziness for years. Gary has become a very enthusiastic supporter of the health services available in High Point. He thanks you for your prayers and expressions of concern.

Absent today: Abernethy, Amos, Blue, Brinson, Cain, Carroll, Fulp, Godwin, B.Green, Heard, C.Hendrix, Hennessee, Hill, Ilderton, Ilderton, Lang, Myers, Norfolk, Sedberry, Simon, Stout, Stroud, Taylor, Trexler, Wood.

If this does not agree with your recollection, contact Secretary Mark Ayer.

Don't forget to register for Virtual Convention

In addition to Rotarians who cannot physically be at the 2001 RI Convention in San Antonio, Texas, USA, RI President Frank J. Devlyn invites non-Rotarians who wish to learn more about the ideals and object of Rotary to visit his Web site at <http://www.frankdevlyn.org/virtualconvention/> and register to attend the annual event online.

To promote the historic opportunity the Virtual Convention provides Rotarians and non-Rotarians across the world to closely follow the proceedings of the San Antonio meeting, advertisements will appear in USA Today next week and during the convention.

...And finally

My brother-in-law, the preacher, was called to a local nursing home to perform a wedding. An anxious old man met him at the door. My brother-in-law sat down to counsel the old man and asked several questions. "Do you love her?:

The old man replied, "Nope."

"I s she a good Christian woman?"

"I don't know for sure," the old man replied.

"Does she have lots of money?" my brother-in-law asked.

"I doubt it."

"Then why are you marrying her?"

"Cause she can drive at night," the old man said.
