10 consecutive years a Governor's Gold Club • A 100% Paul Harris Fellow Club

Ask Steve Ilderton if a bad day in a kayak is better than a good day in the office! Piedmont Environmental Center's Dick Thomas and Steve spent a week last month off the northern end of Wisconsin. The purpose of their visit was to prepare an ecotour that Dick will be leading next August to the Apostle Islands. Dick has a way of boiling billions of years of geologic activity down to 5 minutes. Dick attributes the photography to Steve's skillful camera technique, as well as to the extraordinary geological activity of the area. Dick plans to lead approximately 12 lucky individuals for 8 to 10 days. You can participate if you are willing to share with the bears! Shown in the photo to the right - The ornaments tied in the trees above President Jef's head is Dick and Steve's pantry.

My brother-in-law, the preacher's car wouldn't start. When the tow truck driver arrived, my brother-in-law says, "I hope you go easy on me. You know I'm only a poor preacher."
"Yep," replied the tow truck driver, "I've heard you preach."
