December — Family Month

Indicators of a Merry Christmas

The annual Furnitureland Christmas Gift Exchange was replaced this year with a moment of sharing . . . each member was asked to contribute $10 to the Ward Street Mission to help fill their pantry for Christmas. Including guests (Mattie, Kate and Sara Dyson, Victoria Kitley, and Cameron Green) 38 members and guests attended. $505 and a dozen cans of food will be delivered thanks to your generosity.

More Furnitureland Rotarians rang the bell for Salvation Army than Barry (and Victoria) Kitley and Jack Green . . . they are pictured here because the guy with the camera rang between them.

Queen of Hearts

December 21 – Tim Ilderton, proud that his company shows black ink at the end of the year, still took a trip to pay homage to the Queen, who was not in the market for a new car. 25 more cards reside in the deck.

THE 4 WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do . . .

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to All Concerned?
3. Will it Build GOODWILL and Better Friendships?
4. Will it Be BENEFICIAL to All Concerned?

Nothing to do with Rotary – Last Christmas my brother-in-law, the preacher, decreed that he was no longer going to remind his children of their thank-you note duties. As a result I never received acknowledgments of the generous checks I had given. The next year things were different, however. The children came over in person to thank me. How did I accomplish this change in behavior? It was easy! This year I didn't sign the checks.
