Three members informed the club of their vocational responsibilities.

Ken Fulp, CPA

Ken is a shareholder and director with Sharrard McGee and Company. Previously he was with Fulp and Company and before that with Arthur Anderson. He is a graduate of the University of Virginia where he played football and made the All ACC Academic team. He is married with three children. In his college days, he was torn between wanting to be a CPA or wanting to teach biology and coach high school football. He feels he made the right choice when he followed the CPA path. His responsibilities include more than just tax work. He particularly enjoys consulting, business planning, estate planning, succession planning, and litigation support.

Sparky Stroud

Sparky is a principal/vice-president with Winter, Bell Company, paper and interior packaging specialists. He showed us a number of their packaging products and explained the market for each. He also is involved with Winter, Bell's two subsidiaries – MegaChem (container specialists) and Packers Supply (packaging for the citrus and vegetable industries). Sparky is a past president of Furnitureland and has been involved in numerous civic activities in High Point with particular experience with the Arts Council.

Dr. Mark Ayer

Mark is a veterinarian with the Archdale Animal Clinic, specializing in small animal medicine. His practice is mostly dogs and cats, but also includes pocket pets – hamsters, gerbils, kinkajous, pygmy goats, and chinchillas. He has treated two snakes over the years, understands that prairie dogs need to dig and that guinea pigs get scurvy, and has a wonderful story about a cat that was brought in dead but actually was not dead. Mark knew that he wanted to be a veterinarian when he was five or six years old and his dog was successfully treated for heartworms. He was initially undecided between joining Kiwanis or Rotary but was shown the light by his father who just happened to be a Past District governor for Rotary. Mark enjoys kayaking, plays a good game of golf, and is an excellent bridge player.

I have regretfully accepted the resignation of Deanne Ebel from the Board where she was heading up Service Projects while she goes on to a higher calling as her second daughter is born. Congratulations, Deanne, and best wishes to you and your family for a wonderful and blessed experience! We look forward to having back as a regular member after the first of 2011.

Stepping up to take Deanne’s spot is Charlene Green. Charlene accepted my invitation this past Monday and will work with me and the Board to develop member chairmen of both local and International Projects that will challenge and support our Club’s goals for this Rotary Year.

Thanks, Charlene, for your acceptance of this additional Board responsibility. We all look forward to your worthwhile contributions.
